

HSM

Shula Sbarro

Associate

ssbarro@hsmoffice.com

Tel: 1 345 815 7417

Expertise

Shula Sbarro assists HSM's Debt Solutions and Recovery team, acting for numerous banks, strata corporations and other leading businesses.

Professional Background

Shula joined HSM with over eight years of experience in the legal field with a background in commercial and civil litigation. These matters included mortgage possessions, orders for sale, warrant applications, charging orders, redeterminations, third party debt orders, orders for questioning, return of goods and money claims, summary judgment applications and more.

Shula received a Bachelor of Law (Hons) degree from Staffordshire University in 2006. During her degree she won the National Negotiation Competition and went on to represent England & Wales in the International Negotiation Competition, in Dublin (organised by CEDR). Prior to being called to the Bar of England & Wales in 2007 she was awarded the Sir Thomas More Bursary by The Honourable Society Lincoln's Inn, as a scholar of her Inn she became a member of the Lord Denning Society. She received a Masters of Law degree in International Commercial Law from the University of Birmingham in July 2012 and in April 2013, she cross-qualified as a Solicitor.

Education

University of Birmingham (England) – LLM in International Commercial Law, Merit

BPP (Manchester – England) – Cross-qualified as a Solicitor

Nottingham Law School (England) – Bar Vocational Course, Very Competent

Staffordshire University (England) – LLB (Hons) Law, First Class

Bar Admissions

(2007) Barrister England and Wales (non-practising)

(2013) Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

(2019) Cayman Islands