

2018 National Heroes Day Awards Sports

Sports include all forms of competitive organised activities or games, either physical or mental, conducted through individual or group participation, whether amateur or professional. Sport is governed by a set of rules or customs which serve to ensure fair competition and allow consistent adjudication of the winner.

CATEGORIES

*Nominations are now open for the 2018 National Heroes Day
Awards for Sports in the following categories:*

Early Pioneer

An individual who has made a significant contribution, prior to 1960, to the development and/or delivery of sports in the Cayman Islands. This individual may be alive or deceased. A commemorative insignia and certificate will be awarded.

Pioneer

An individual who has made a significant contribution, between 1960 - 2006, to the development and/or delivery of sports in the Cayman Islands. This individual may be alive or deceased. A commemorative insignia and certificate will be awarded.

Emerging Pioneer

An individual who has made a significant contribution, from 2007 to present, to the development and/or delivery of sports in the Cayman Islands. A commemorative insignia and certificate will be awarded.

Memorial Scroll

A deceased person who was a leader or notable contributor to the development and/or delivery of sports in the Cayman Islands. This individual will be recognised with a certificate but will not receive a commemorative insignia.

Long Service Award

An individual (currently alive) who may not necessarily have been a leader, but is a long-standing contributor to the development and/or delivery of sports in the Cayman Islands for 10 years or more. This individual will be recognised with a certificate but will not receive a commemorative insignia.

Deadline for submissions is Saturday, 30 September 2017.
Only completed nominations received by the deadline will be considered.
