

About Celebrations

Celebrations has been in the business of events, weddings, celebrations, flowers, laughter and joy for 25 years. It's not a bad industry to be in – bringing happiness to clients from around the world; making their dreams come true; and creating memories that last a lifetime.

It's hard to believe that we began as a one-person operation, based in the Cayman home of Founder JoAnne V. Brown – an operation that has grown into an exceptional events company with an international team of multilingual, talented planners, floral artists, designers and production crew from every corner of the globe – yet we still offer that one-on-one personalized touch that has existed from the beginning.

Celebrations and JoAnne V. Brown, CEO, are featured in myriad television programs shown in many countries, along with premier publications, news articles and indeed any media focused on corporate and social event planning, particularly weddings.

The Celebrations team simply eats, sleeps and breathes events. We'll do whatever it takes, and create miracles from scratch to exceed your expectations each and every time. We make the impossible possible, the impersonal personal, and the picture perfect.

The bar is set up outdoors on a sandy beach with palm trees and a blue metal frame in the background. In the foreground, there are several pink and purple plastic cups filled with drinks. To the left, there are floral decorations and a tray of lemons.

Lauded as a fairy godmother of destination weddings, Jo Anne V. Brown is the leading wedding planner and event designer in the Caribbean. Revered as one of the Top 25 Most Influential Wedding Planners in the World by Event Planning University, and honored with the title of “A-List Planner” by Destination Weddings & Honeymoons Magazine JoAnne is known for her professional and friendly approach to creating weddings and events. Making dreams come true for more than 25 years, JoAnne does not design weddings - she designs experiences.

JoAnne’s designs are published in a coffee table style book called “Caribbean Wedding Style”, revealing a splendid selection of various weddings. She also welcomes the opportunity to travel and share her knowledge through speaking engagements at conferences and events worldwide. Her congeniality, captivating speaking style and moving story make her a crowd favorite at every event. Most recently she spoke at Exotic Wedding Planning Conference in Arezzo, Italy and at Caribbean Bride’s Bride Villa in Tobago.
